

Connect the dots for the mother bat.

Bats are MAMMALS. This means they have fur covering their bodies, they are warm-blooded, and they feed their babies milk. This mother bat is nursing her baby.

Bats usually have only ONE baby each year.

